THE JOLLIFICATION. - Wednesday night was a great time for the Republicans of St. Albans. During the afte. noon and evening 100 gu s were fired over the Election, and in the evening the park was lighted up by a huge bon fire, sky rockets filled the air, and fireballs were more numerous than grasshoppers in adry time. The Band discoursed sweet music and later in the evening, about 6) Republicans with the Band filed into the American House and partook of an Oyster supper with the gentlemanly proporietor. The tables were well furnished and after a l.t.le time passed in feasting and unrestrained hilarity, the batteries began to open around the tables. Speeches were made by Capt. Clark of the Messenger, Lieut Farrington, W. D. Wilson, Maj. Newton A. O. Brainerd, Capt. Taylor, Dr. Gilman, Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Failey, Mr.
